The carnival officers elected were: General chairman, Abram E. Stern; assistant chairmen, Samuel Richards; secretary, M. H. Friedman; treasurer, Harry A. Brandt; treasurer, Dr. J. Kotz; assistant treasurer, Dr. A. S. Hutterman; Mrs. E. Ostrow, S. Raybo, M. Reichart and M. Dodek.

Commissioners Oppose Renaming 16th Street

Sixteenth street will retain its present name as far as the District Commissioners are concerned. In an adverse report made yesterday to Congress on a joint resolution providing for changing the name to President's avenue, the Commissioners expressed themselves as seeing no reason justifying the change.

The street has quit the name it regards its designation. In 1904 it officially was designated Sixteenth street. In 1913 the name was changed to Avenue of the Presidents. Then in 1914 it was changed back to Sixteenth street again and unless Congress now sees fit to change it to President's avenue it will remain Sixteenth street.
